v1

Standing in the outer court I'm amazed at You
Your awesome power is clearly seen in everything You do
But still there's something greater in the wonder of Your grace
It's not enough to see Your work, I want to see Your face

Chorus

Behind the veil, nothing stands between us
But the blood that washes all my sin away
I see Your face, and the world just doesn't seem as Big a problem as it did just yesterday
Behind the veil

v2

Cherubim and seraphim falling down to You
All the host of heaven gladly worship too
And all who have been born again Standing by Your grace
Are also free to enter in, to come before Your face

Chorus

Behind the veil, nothing stands between us
But the blood that washes all my sin away
I see Your face, and the world just doesn't seem as
Big a problem as it did just yesterday
Behind the veil

Bridge

Every knee will bow before Your throne
Every tongue and tribe will bring their own
While that day is coming I don't wanna wait
To come myself and bow before Your face

Chorus

Behind the veil, nothing stands between us
But the blood that washes all my sin away
I see Your face, and the world just doesn't seem as
Big a problem as it did just yesterday
Behind the veil
