

The Mighty Love of Christ©

Writer: Robert E Jones
R E Jones Publishing/ASCAP

v1

Misunderstood by the ones who walked beside Him
They never could understand why He had come
And they never would know the greatness of His purpose
Until His life and His work on earth were done

Greatly feared by the men who were in power
And revered by the sinners of His day
Religious cheered as they cried out, "Crucify him!"
His own denied Him and He watched them run away

Chorus

Oh the mighty love of Christ, He died to give us Life
He defeated death and hell
In a million years with a thousand tongues, still I couldn't tell all that He has done

v2

The desperate crowds took everything He offered
They cried aloud for His touch as He walked by
They came and bowed-called Him Lord and Master
Then they left Him all alone and watched Him die

He raised the dead of the rulers and the widows
And they all said that a great man had been born
They took His bread as He fed the hungry masses
He took their lashes, and He took a crown of thorns

Chorus

Oh the mighty love of Christ, He died to give us Life
He defeated death and hell
In a million years with a thousand tongues, still I couldn't tell all that He has done

Bridge

And when life on earth on is ended and we're in that holy place
Time will be suspended while we look upon His face

Chorus

Oh the mighty love of Christ, He died to give us Life
He defeated death and hell
In a million years with a thousand tongues, still I couldn't tell all that He has done
(tag)
If I had a million years, and a thousand tongues
Still I couldn't tell all that He has done