

There's Not A Man©

Writer: Robert E Jones
R E Jones Publishing/ASCAP

v1

Down the lonely road to redemption the Savior tasted death for every man
But His death was not for Him, for the nails that they drove in were for our hands
Down the darkened path from Golgotha, Barabbas turned and slowly walked away
And the lines that form his face can easily be traced down through today

Chorus 1

He's your neighbor, he's your friend
And your enemies, yes Jesus died for them
For the murderer He gave His life
There's not a man not loved by Jesus Christ

v2

Even while the heavens hung in darkness
Long before the stars began to shine
The Father's love for man drew salvation's plan before all time
Answering the cry of the nations, Jesus gave His life for all mankind
For every tribe and tongue, His blood's for everyone and for all time

Chorus 2

For the pauper, for the king,
And for every boy and girl that's in between
For the husband, for the wife
There's no one that's not loved by Jesus Christ

For the Russian, for the Serb,
And for every other man that's never heard
For the Haitian for the Thai
There's not a man not loved not loved by Jesus Christ

For the Hindu, for the Kurd
For the teeming masses in the Muslim world
For the Buddhist He gave His life
There's not a man not loved not loved by Jesus Christ
No there's not a man not loved not loved by Jesus Christ